Our 7th Ukulele and folk festival will be held entirely at The Diggers at the Entrance, Central Coast Hwy, Long Jetty.

Accommodation is available at the Ibis connected to the club or at the many accommodation hotels and motels around the Entrance. There is also brilliant camping and van parks and grounds.

We will have several stages available within the club for your performances. Workshops available all weekend.

Our Dinner show is ticketed and is on Friday 24th August in the Pavillion room. We have some brilliant acts ready to perform for you including up close and personal with The Nukes, Johnny Devilseed and old man Rubes to name just two of our brilliant line up of acts. Tickets are purchased at The Diggers by calling (02) 4332 3399 to book a table. The food is wonderful.

Long Jetty is 97.2 km from Sydney (1hr 24 min) on the M1 motorway. The nearest rail station is Tuggerah and the bus service runs regularly to and from The Entrance to Tuggerah station on the northern line. Long Jetty is one hour south of Newcastle and the Hunter Valley.

The Central Coast is a beautiful coastal region snuggled between two big cites. It has rainforests, lakes (Tuggerah Lakes, Budgewoi, Lake Macquarie and Lake Munmorah) and beautiful beaches. Come and enjoy the live music and the beautiful Central Coast.
