Our 9th Ukulele and folk festival will be held entirely at The Diggers at the Entrance, Central Coast Hwy, Long Jetty.

Accommodation is available at the Ibis Hotel connected to the club or at the many accommodation hotels, resorts and motels around the Entrance. There are also many brilliant camping and van parks grounds within close proximity.

We will have several stages available within the club for your performances. Workshops are available all weekend.

Our Dinner show is ticketed and is on Friday 28th August in the Pavillion room. We have some brilliant acts both international and local ready to perform for you.

Tickets are purchased at The Diggers by calling (02) 4332 3399 to book a table. Two course meal, plus tea coffee and chocolates. This has been a popular evening and fantastic way to start our festival.

Long Jetty is 97.2 km from Sydney (1hr 24 min) on the M1 motorway. The nearest rail station is Tuggerah and the bus service runs regularly to and from The Entrance to Tuggerah station on the northern line. Long Jetty is one hour south of Newcastle and the Hunter Valley.

The Central Coast - a beautiful coastal region snuggled between two big cities. It has rainforests, lakes (Tuggerah Lakes, Budgewoi, Lake Macquarie and Lake Munmorah) and beautiful beaches. Come and enjoy the live music and the beautiful Central Coast.

Liz
